

KNOKE OBJECTED

And the Wheeling Railway Company Ordinance Goes Over

TO COUNCIL'S NEXT MEETING.

A Delegation of Islanders Present, Who Desire a Provision for a Frequent Service on North Huron and York Streets—The Carey Case Compromised, the City Paying $1,000. Routine Business Transacted.

The city legislature met last evening in regular session, and transacted little but routine business. The ordinance granting the Wheeling Railway Company a franchise to construct and operate new tracks on Eoff, Forty-third and Forty-fourth streets, South Side, was objected to in the first branch by Mr. Knoke, of the Eighth ward, and goes over until the next meeting. Quite a delegation of island citizens attended the meeting of council, and had the railroad ordinance not been objected to they would have asked that a provision be inserted in the ordinance, compelling the company to give at least a twelve-minute service on the North Huron and York loop. The company is willing to give a service as frequent as the patronage justifies, but this does not satisfy the Islanders. Formerly the Martin's Ferry-Wheeling cars ran via these streets, but since this service has been changed and is via Zane street and Bridgeport, it is necessary to run a North Island loop service similar to the fair grounds branch service.

A BARE QUORUM.

Mayor Sweeney presided in the first branch, where ten members answered the roll call, and in the second branch Mr. Kindelberger, of the Third ward, presided, with fifteen members present, a bare quorum. Later President Maxwell arrived and relieved President Pro Tem Kindelberger.

THE RAILROAD ORDINANCE.

The ordinance granting the Wheeling Railway Company the right to maintain and operate new tracks on streets of the lower South Side, forming a new loop, came up in the first branch, having been laid over at the last meeting of council owing to the fact that no printed copies had been provided. At the close of the reading of the ordinance Mr. Knoke, of the Eighth ward, objected, and further consideration was shut off until the next meeting of council.

At 8:50 p. m. council adjourned.

WRECK OF ADULA

Of the Atlas Line, Off the Coast of Jamaica—Five Drowned.

KINGSTON, Jamaica, Sept. 26.—Particulars regarding the wreck of the Atlas line steamer Adula, Captain McAuley, from Kingston for Baltimore, which foundered at 3:20 p. m. yesterday off the coast of Jamaica, have just been obtained.

She left Kingston yesterday for Baltimore via Port Antonio, where she was to have loaded bananas. She took from here a deckload of 2,000 barrels of oranges. When off Mancholson, between this port and Port Antonio, she encountered a heavy sea from the Windward passage and the steamer turned over, filled and sank in fifty fathoms of water, about two miles from the shore. The crew had no opportunity to make use of the boats and tried to reach the shore by swimming with port wine.

Chief Officer Percy and four seamen were drowned. The others succeeded in gaining the shore. Carpenter Conner died shortly afterward. The current aided the survivors. The weather and sea were normally calm.

WASHINGTON DRUGGISTS

Brought to Time for Not Complying With the State Law.

WASHINGTON, Pa., Sept. 26.—Louis Emanuel, of Pittsburgh, president of the State Pharmaceutical Board, was in Washington this week, and found that many of the druggists have not complied with the act requiring every druggist to employ at least one assistant to pass the examination that is necessary to make it lawful for him to fill prescriptions, and to hold a certificate giving him this authority.

President Emanuel's investigation resulted in the discovery that out of thirteen drug stores in Washington, but four are complying with the requirements of the law, five are doing so partially and four not at all. Each of the violators have been notified that unless they comply with the law at once prosecution will follow immediately. This law has been in force twelve years but has not been observed as it should be, but the state board is now determined to have it strictly enforced.

Labor Troubles in Havana.

HAVANA, Sept. 26.—Owing to the police breaking up the meeting last night, which had been called by the general committee of labor unions for the purpose of deciding whether a general strike will be ordered, the question has not yet been settled. Those who had organized the meeting had failed to give the authorities the requisite twenty-four hours' notice, as required by law, and the two thousand men who had assembled were therefore dispersed and the headquarters of the strikers were occupied by the police and some secretaries. A number of the leaders have been arrested for circulating leaflets containing an inflammatory attack on the police. Work on the wharves has been paralyzed, owing to the action of the stevedores, who refuse to allow operations of any kind to be carried on. The cartmen, coachmen and omnibus men, however, are still working.

To Onst Mayor Swartz.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, Sept. 26.—Application was made to Attorney General Monnett to-day, asking that he bring a suit in ouster against the mayor of Columbus, Hon. Samuel J. Swartz. The application is made under the Garfield corrupt practices act, which limits the money which may be spent by candidates for election purposes. Mayor Swartz after the election last spring, filed a sworn statement of his expenses, the amount being in excess of that allowed by the Garfield law. This was followed by the Garfield law. This was followed by the Garfield law. This was followed by the Garfield law.

Window Glass Combine.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., Sept. 26.—The financial projects of the American Window Glass Company, met here to-day and allotted the stock for the new combination. It was decided that all subscribers for stock for $10,000 or less receive the full amount, and all over that sum are to be shaded 10 per cent. The capitalization of the company is $17,000,000, and the result of the meeting to-day indicates that the stock has been over-subscribed, but the amount was not given. The combination will be doing business by October 1, it is said, notwithstanding the suits entered in Indiana.

A Narrow Escape.

CINCINNATI, O., Sept. 26.—A Middleport, O., special to Times-Star says: The south-bound train on the Hocking Valley railroad carrying Senator Mark Hanna and Colonel Nevin to Middleport, where they made speeches to-day, had a very narrow escape from being wrecked at Addison. It was approaching the station at a terrific rate of speed, when a rail broke, splintering the floor of the smoker. However, it occurred on a curve and this is all that saved the train.

THE RIVER.

The marks at 6 p. m. showed 1 foot 2 inches and stationary. Weather, cold and cloudy.

The government engineers who have been working at various points along the Ohio river, locating sites for the proposed Ohio river dams, were at last accounts in the vicinity of Gallipolis, O.

The Huntington and St. Louis Towboat Company is building a number of new model barges at Jeffersonville, Ind. The barges are being named after the various states. The Virginia and the Tennessee have been about completed, and the Texas and Dakota will follow.

The Mattie K. and the Lulu F., the two light draught boats running in local trades, experienced great difficulties yesterday in reaching this port from below. Both were grounded some time at Fish creek bar, and later they stuck at Captina bar. When last heard from the Lulu F. had been floated over the bar and had passed Mountaineer. She was due here early in the evening, but as she hadn't arrived at a late hour it is supposed she grounded on the Bellaire bar. However, she will be here this morning, and depart for Matamoros at 11 a. m.

BELLAIRE'S FAIR.

Pythians of the Over-the-River Town and Many Visitors

TOOK PART IN THE OPENING

Exercises Yesterday Afternoon—The Cold Weather Interfered Slightly, But Even With This Handicap the Success of the Fair Seems Assured. The Parade was the Great Spectacular Attraction in the Afternoon.

Yesterday was a gala day in Bellaire. The gallant knights of the Pythian order fairly owned the city, and the great throng that crowded the streets fairly rivaled any gathering ever held in this city. Early in the morning Heatherington's brass band was out, and visited the railway stations at each incoming train, every one of which brought a fair share of the large crowd. The music, kept up for three hours, was augmented at noon by the appearance of the Uniformed Rank band, and a little later by the American Mechanics' band.

By the time the parade was to form the immense throng of people on the streets could move about with difficulty. The sidewalks were packed in the principal part of town, but the well-paved streets afforded opportunity to get around without difficulty. If the threatening clouds and cooler weather served to keep any away on the opening day it was good fortune to them, rather than misfortune. There will be other days of the fair. In fact it will last all week, and on Thursday the Summerfield band will come through on the B. & C. R. R. with an excursion from all the points along that line.

But for an opening day greater success could hardly have been hoped for than that of yesterday. Barnesville came down in goodly numbers, among them Mayor White, Hon. Charles J. Howard and other prominent citizens. Sheriff Foreman, Albert Lawrence and other distinguished gentlemen among the lot. Bridgeport and Martin's Ferry did fairly well, but the country round about and all along the Narrow Gauge railroad poured in in great numbers, while Shadyside and all that farming community was out in full force, and with a grand display of the products of the farm and garden.

The procession lined up between 1 and 2 o'clock, headed by Marshal Johnston and six police officers in full dress, followed by the Uniform Rank band. Chief Marshal J. M. Du Bois and four of his aides rode at the head of the column, and the fiery steeds left no room for a call to cry "My kingdom for a horse." The Uniformed Rank, Knights of the Golden Eagle, all in full dress; the valiant knights, the firemen with decorated reels, the Elks, the glassworkers and civilians, then the splendid merchants' display in wagons, and the farm and garden display by the farmers all around Bellaire. A whole hennery and an incubator formed a novel feature of the parade. A few carriages carried city officers and other favored ones, but most people preferred to walk. The parade was the largest perhaps ever seen in the city, and was made up of all classes of people. It was immense, and the whole city was profusely decorated with flags and bunting, while the red, yellow and blue, the Pythian colors, predominated in most quarters.

It was a great day for the merchants of Bellaire. For three or four hours preceding the parade the stores were packed with people who had come in to spend the day, and were incidentally letting loose of some of their cash for things needed.

The street fair booths are all fitted up and decorated, and it is a great place for commingling of old and young people. The booths are attractive throughout, some of them being most artistically arranged. These are only advertisements of the business of local merchants. No goods are sold in the fair enclosure, but with music galore it is a good place to meet friends. A little farther down the street, but separate and apart from the booths, is the merry-go-round, shows of all kinds and character, and any who want to can visit them. Each afternoon and evening from now until Friday will be a big day in Bellaire.

Dogs and Ponies.

Prof. Gentry and his company of educated dogs and ponies, some one hundred in number, will exhibit in this city under canvas, Tuesday, October 3, for three days, at Bridge Park, old base ball grounds. Afternoon, 2:30 o'clock; night, 8 o'clock. Prof. Gentry's exhibition is too well known in this city to need much praising. The simple announcement that his talented dogs and ponies are soon to exhibit here is sufficient to enthrall the little ones, who in turn make the fact known to the older ones, and as usual Prof. Gentry will enjoy the same liberal patronage. His exhibition thoroughly deserves all the praise that is bestowed upon it, for it would be impossible to devise a more pleasing and instructive exhibition than the one given by Prof. Gentry and his wonderful dogs and ponies. The prices of admission are, children 15 cents; adults 25 cents.

ATTORNEY GENERAL GRIGGS

Replies to Governor Potato Pingree, in Which He Sets Some Matters Right.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 26.—Attorney General Griggs has written the following reply to a letter recently received from Governor Pingree, of Michigan: "I am in receipt of your letter of the 21st inst., asking me to send you a copy of my opinion to the effect that under the constitution of the United States, Congress cannot enact a law which would be effective in suppressing trusts, so-called."

"In reply I beg to say I have never rendered either officially or unofficially, any opinion of this kind. On the contrary, this department has been engaged in bringing numerous suits in the United States courts under the Sherman act of July-2, 1890, entitled 'An act to protect trade and commerce against unlawful restraints and monopolies,' in several of which cases, notably that against the trans-Missouri freight association, 166 United States, 290, and that against the joint traffic association 171 United States, 505, the result has been the suppression by decree of the court of the offending agreement or association."

"You may possibly have reference to a letter of mine to a private citizen published several months ago in the newspapers, wherein I called attention to the fact that the only jurisdiction that Congress has over combinations or contracts in restraint of trade, was in relation to those which directly affected interstate commerce. That this is true and that this is the full extent of the Sherman trust act you will ascertain by reading the decision of the United States supreme court in the case of Hopkins vs. The United States, 171 United States, 573, and the case of the United States vs. E. C. Knight Company, 156 United States, 1."

"You are doubtless aware that it is not the right or function of the federal government to interfere with business transactions carried on within the several states except upon some ground expressly authorized by the constitution. Congress can regulate directly that which we understand by 'interstate commerce,' but it has no power to regulate or control business or commerce carried on wholly within the limits of a state."

"I have called your attention to these matters not because I assume you are ignorant of them for you doubtless understood them well, but only in order to explain to you that I have not given, and could not possibly have given any opinion of the purport expressed in your letter."

AMUSEMENTS.

The new farce, "Brown's in Town," which is the attraction at the Opera House next Thursday night, is said to be one of the brightest and cleanest comedies ever seen on the stage. The company is a very capable one. The plot of the piece deals with the troubles of Dick and Letty Preston, two young people who have been secretly married and who are trying to conceal their marriage from Dick's father. The old gentleman has a decided aversion to marriage from Dick's father. The old gentleman has a decided aversion to marriage, probably as Dick says, "because he has been there himself," and has vowed that if Dick does marry before reaching the age of twenty-five he will cut him off without a cent. Dick and Letty have taken a cottage at Brighton and are living an ideal life among honey suckles, hens and inquisitive neighbors, and of course the old gentleman turns up. Dick is living under the name of Brown at the cottage, and the older Preston takes a friend of the name of Brown and Letty for Mrs. Brown. On his arrival Dick has arranged with Suzanne Dacre, a friend of Letty's, to act as Mrs. Brown. This eventually leads to the discovery by the old gentleman that there are two Mrs. Browns and the contradictory explanations that the young people give for the unusual number of wives on the part of the imaginary Brown, keep Preston senior in a whirl of excitement for three acts.

"The Real Thing."

Wheeling people are the proprietors of an excellent dramatic attraction which recently opened the season in New Jersey. Messrs. Osce Statler and F. M. ("Dixey") Engel are the proprietors, and the latter the manager, of "The Real Thing" company, made up of twenty-two capable people. This company will appear at the Grand, October 9, 10 and 11. Knights of Pythias week. Of this attraction the Ashland (Pa.) Telegram says: "Elegant, best expression of the opinion of last night's performance at the opera house, 'The Real Thing Company' gave a neat, clean and catchy performance, one that was thoroughly appreciated. It fairly bristled with new things and was delightfully humorous, entertaining and refreshing. Miss Currier's rich, sweet soprano was a treat, and her opening song, "Always," was rapturously applauded. Mr. Reidy sang "In an Old New England Village" in a beautiful tenor; and the audience was loath to part with him. The dances were bright, the costumes pretty and appropriate and the orchestral music the best heard here for a long time. All in all it was a performance that thoroughly pleased the audience. Manager Eagle promises to come back later in the season, and we hope that he will.

Rose Melville Coming.

Rose Melville, in "Sis Hopkins," will be the attraction at the Opera House, Monday and Tuesday, October 2 and 3. Miss Melville needs no introduction to theatre-goers. She has been a character actor of prominence for a number of seasons, and has never failed to thoroughly delight the audiences that have judged of her novel methods in the portrayal of the Indiana country girl. "Sis Hopkins," the play, is an unconventional one. The company is a large one. Thirty speaking parts are in the play, and every actor assuming a part has been carefully chosen. The cast is well balanced, containing some well known and prominent actors. Among them are John Keefe and Adeline Barker, both character actors of more than passing merit; Edith Hutchins, who was the leading woman in Augustin Daly's "Runaway Girl"; Annie Lloyd, the soubrette; J. R. Armstrong, Alden Bass, Leo Hardman and Ann Fairchild.

Miss Gould's Donation.

NEW YORK, Sept. 26.—Miss Helen Gould has given $1,250 toward the Dewey home fund of which $750 was sent to the committee at Washington and $500 to the New York committee.

THROUGH the enterprise of Mr. Thomas Beecham, proprietor of the world renowned Beecham's Pills, photographs of public buildings, natural scenery, etc., of the British Isles may now be obtained for the nominal price of five cents from the International News Co., Duane street, New York City.

To those who have not visited the places of historic interest which are portrayed in these books, the photographs will be of extreme interest; England, Scotland, Ireland and Wales have all received their attention at Mr. Beecham's hands, and the books will prove very interesting and instructive.
